USER MANUAL

INTRODUCTION

The software includes a variety of users who want to create and edit plain text documents by use of basic editing features.Customers like students , professors etc who need basic text editor to edit plain text will be served by the system. A dummy customer C would require basic feature in a text editor such as creating a new document ,changing the font size ,colour and style,finding and replacing words,undo and redo,basic text formatting options like indentation and underlining, cut ,copy and paste.The customer wants to create a simple document using a text editor with these features.No compromise will be allowed by the customer in these feature as they are a must for creation of a basic document.

Installation and Configuration of Text Editor

Text Editor version 1.0 is an editor for windows OS and Linux.

This application will require internet only during the installation time and during updates. After that customer can work on this application in offline mode as and when needed.

 The requirements for download and instructions on installation are listed below.
 System Requirements
1. Internet Connection
2. Internet Browser
3. Python version 3.6.1 installed on system
    Download version 3.6.1 from :- https://www.python.org/downloads/

4. The folder requires 36 KB of space on your system
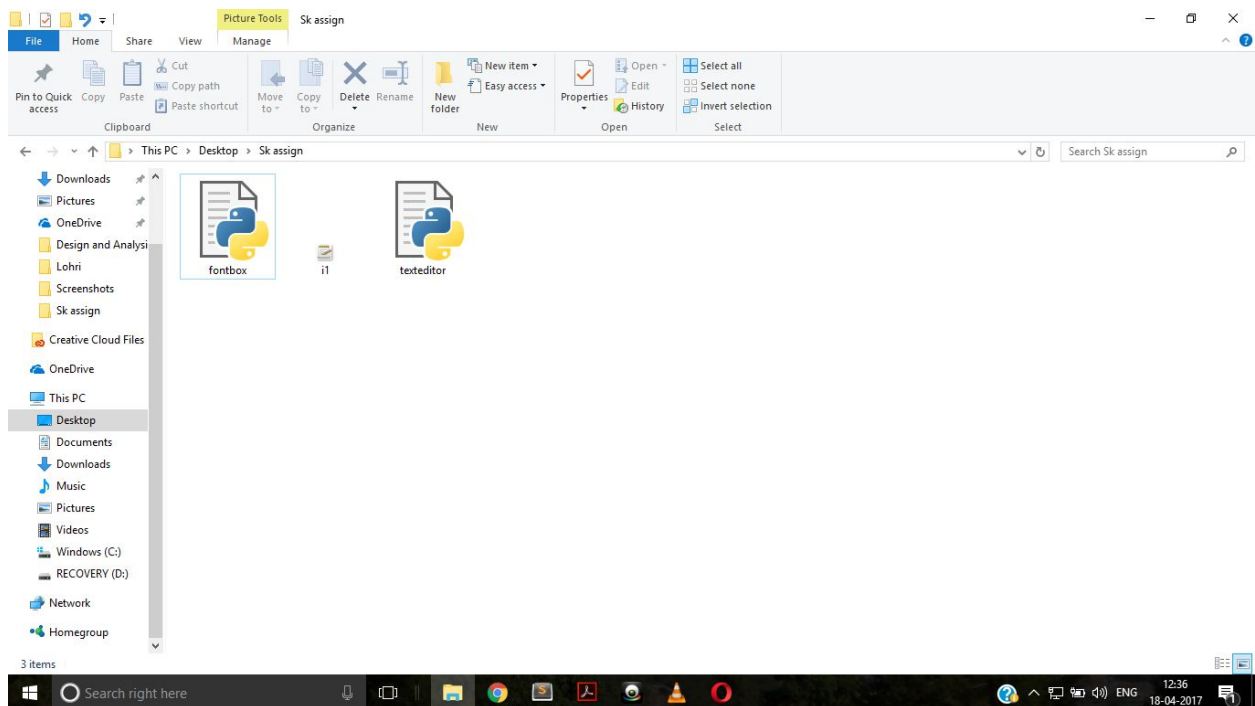

Installation

Download all the files from github.com/ankita240796/TextEditor

The required files are:-

1. texteditor.py
2. fontbox.py
3. i1.ico

Download all these files and save them in the same folder with the above mentioned names.

You can run the texteditor by either double clicking on the texteditor icon or using command prompt.

Running through command prompt:-

1. Change the directory to the location where the files are saved
2. Set the PYTHONPATH (for windows)
3. Type python texteditor.py to run the texteditor

Features and Usage

The features of Text Editor is what sets it apart from the other editors out there. Text Editor has a variety of features that makes documentation extremely easy and simple. Some useful features and their usage are below.

File menu

Tab or click on file menu and then click on New to open new file.

Click on open to open any required file

Click on save to save the file

Click on save as if saving the file first time

Click on Close to close the file

Edit Menu

Click on edit menu and then click on Undo to cancel last operation.

click on Redo to redo the last operation.

click on cut to move text from one place to another click on copy to have the same text in two places, select the text, click on paste to paste text you have cut or copied.

click on delete to delete selected text
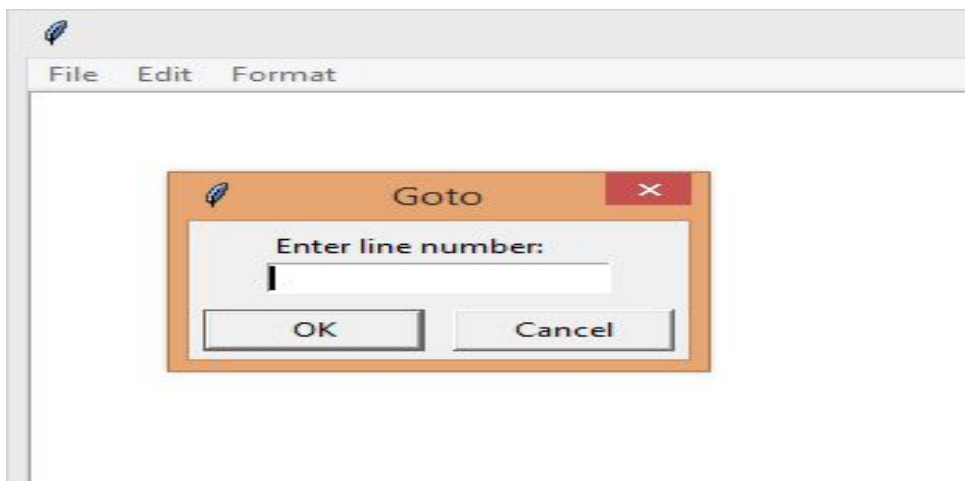

To find any text click on "Find" then

Enter what you want to find and then click on "Find next".

Click on replace and then enter what you want to replace and then click on replace

You can go to a specific line in the editor.Lines are counted down the left side beginning at the top of the file
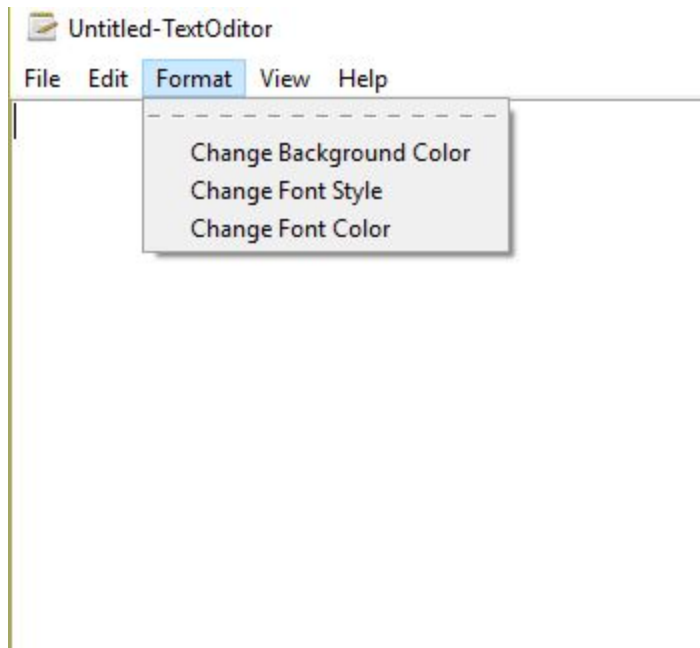

1. Tap or click the Edit menu, and then tap or click Go To.
2. In the Line number box, enter the line number you want the cursor to jump to, and then tap or click Go To.

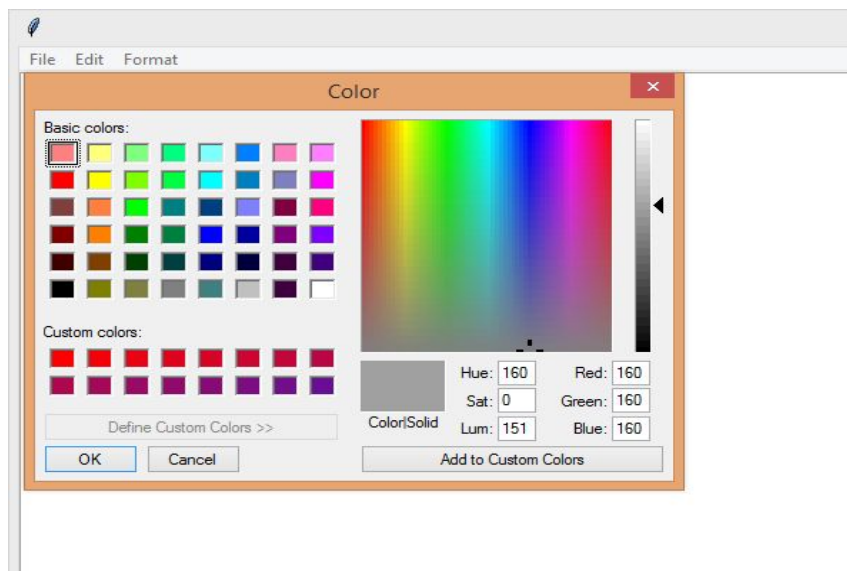

Time and date 1.Tap or click the place in the file where you want to add the time and date

2.Tap or click the Edit menu, and then tap or click Time/DateFormat menu

Format Menu

Untitled-TextOditor

File   Edit   Format   View   Help

Change Background Color
Change Font Style
Change Font Color

Click on format menu to change background colour and Font color.

Select the colour and click on ok.

Font Style and size can also be changed.

View Menu

Click on View Menu and then on view status info option to get the cursor position.

Help Menu

About option in this menu gives information about text editor version and user manual.

For more information visit github.com/ankita240796/TextEditor